Dkt. 17.

On August 23, 2021, defendant Robert Jesus Blancas pled guilty pursuant to a plea agreement to Count One of the Information, namely, enticement of a minor to engage in sexual activity in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2422(b). Dkts. 37, 41.

The accompanying proposed Preliminary Order of Forfeiture is requested to complete the forfeiture process.

Basis for a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture

Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure addresses criminal forfeiture procedure. Rule 32.2(b)(1)(A) provides that as soon as practicable after entering a guilty verdict or accepting a plea of guilty or nolo contendere on any count in an indictment or information with regard to which criminal forfeiture is sought, the court shall determine what property is subject to forfeiture under the applicable statute. If forfeiture of specific property is sought, the court shall determine whether the government has established the requisite nexus between the property and the offense. If the government seeks a personal money judgment against the defendant, the court shall determine the amount of money that the defendant will be ordered to pay.

Rule 32.2(b)(1)(B) provides that the court's determination may be based on evidence already in the record, "including any written plea agreement[.]" If the forfeiture is not agreed to but rather

1 contested, the court may determine the nexus of the specific property to the offense based on evidence or
2 information before the Court or presented by the parties at a hearing after the verdict or finding of guilt.

3 Rule 32.2(b)(2) states that if the court finds that property is subject to forfeiture, it shall enter a 4 preliminary order of forfeiture setting forth the amount of any money judgment or directing the 5 forfeiture of the specific property without regard to any third party's interest in all or part of it. As to the 6 interest of third parties, the rule provides that, "Determining whether a third party has such an interest
7 must be deferred until any third-party files a claim in the subsequent ancillary proceeding under Rule
8 32.2(c)." The ancillary proceeding can be completed once the preliminary order of forfeiture becomes 9 final as to the defendant, upon the court announcing such at sentencing and including it in the judgment,
10 per Rule 32.2(b)(4).

11 Rule 32.2(b)(3) provides that the entry of a preliminary order of forfeiture authorizes the 12 Attorney General (or a designee) to seize the specific property subject to forfeiture; to conduct any 13 discovery the court considers proper in identifying, locating, or disposing of the property; and to 14 commence proceedings that comply with any statute governing third-party rights. The court may 15 include in the order of forfeiture any conditions reasonably necessary to preserve the property's value
16 pending any appeal.

17 Rule 32.2(b)(4) further provides that at sentencing, or at any time before sentencing if the 18 defendant consents, the order of forfeiture becomes final as to the defendant and shall be made part of 19 the sentence and must be included in the judgment.

20 The United States has established the sufficient requisite nexus between the subject property and 21 the offense. The defendant pled guilty on August 23, 2021 to Count One of the Information, which 22 charged his possession of the subject property. Dkts. 37, 41. Accordingly, the subject property is 23 "involved in" the violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2422(b) and is subject, as alleged in 24 the Information, to forfeiture to the United States pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 2428.

25 Procedure Following Issuance of Preliminary Order of Forfeiture

26 Upon the issuance of a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture and pursuant to Title 21, United States
27 Code, Section 853(n), and Rule G(4)(a)(iv) of the Supplemental Rules for admiralty or Maritime Claims
28 and Asset Forfeiture Actions, the United States will publish on www.forfeiture.gov, a government website for at least thirty days, notice of this Order, notice of its intent to dispose of the property in such manner as the Attorney General may direct, and notice that any person, other than the defendant, having or claiming a legal interest in the property must file a petition with the Court and serve a copy on Chris Kaltsas, Assistant United States Attorney, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, Box 36055, San Francisco, CA 94102, within thirty (30) days of the final publication of notice or of receipt of actual notice, whichever is earlier. This notice shall state that the petition shall be for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of the petitioner's alleged interest in the property, shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury, shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known to have alleged an interest in the property that is the subject of the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, as a substitute for published notice as to those persons so notified.

Request for Preliminary Order of Forfeiture

The United States therefore moves this Court to enter the accompanying proposed Preliminary Order of Forfeiture which provides for the following:

- a. authorizes the forfeiture of the subject property to the United States;
- b. directs the United States, through its appropriate agency, to seize the forfeited property forthwith;
- c. authorizes the government to conduct discovery in order to identify, locate, or dispose of property subject to forfeiture in accordance with Rule 32.2(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- d. directs the United States to publish on a government website for at least thirty days, notice of this Order, notice of the government's intent to dispose of the property in such manner as the Attorney General may direct and provide notice that any person, other than the defendant, having or claiming a legal interest in the subject property must file a petition with the Court and serve a copy on government counsel within thirty (30) days of the final publication of notice or of receipt of actual notice, whichever is earlier; and

1 e. the Court retains jurisdiction to enforce the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, and to amend it
2 as necessary, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(e).
